ONE COPY—ONE CENT.

This is the season of the year When children should be sweet; For Santa Claus will soon be here To do his stocking feat.

33,480 POUNDS SOLD

Yesterday's Maysville Tobacco Market Depressed By All Sorts of Conditions.

The tobacco market is decidedly off and without spirit.

However, conditions will soon adjust themselves. The buyers continue to hammer prices down and the growers are at present at their mercy. But, watch and wait.

Total sales yesterday at three houses were 33,480 pounds, as follows:

Growers House.
Pounds sold 34,000
Tobacco offered at this house was of a common grade. There is a slight noticeable strengthening in the market.

Farmers and Planters House.
Pounds sold 4,010
High price $15.50
Low price 2.00
Average 8.81
This house will have sales every day except Saturday.

Home House.
Pounds sold 26,070
The Central and Independent had very small sales. No sale at the Annzen.

The Central sold a small crop for Miss Boone of Brown county, Ohio, at $12.91 average.

EVIDENTLY THE HATCHET IS FOREVER BURIED.

Prof. and Mrs. D. S. Caplinger of Laurel, Mont., are the happy parents of the arrival of a son, William Coryell, on November 25. Both are former citizens and are well known by our people. Mrs. Clinger being the daughter of Mrs. C. W. Naylor, Manchester (O.) Signal.

The naming of his little son after Mr. W. C. Coryell brings forcefully to mind the terrible fight which occurred between the two "Profs." in the old high school building some years ago.

Clinger and Coryell were both teaching at the time, Mr. Clinger being superintendent of the Maysville public schools.

Evidently Prof. Clinger retains some re and for Mr. Coryell which the fistic-art failed to obliterate.

pens are ideal Christmas gifts. At De

MAYSVILLE TEACHERS

Visiting Cincinnati Schools—Supt. Cap-linger Chaperoning 35 Pedagogues —Augusta Included.

(Thursday's Times-Star.)

"We have heard of the wonderful achievements and progress of Cincinnati's public schools and we have come here with our teachers to inspect the schools, to study and to learn," said School Superintendent W. J. Caplinger of Maysville, Ky., and Superintendent A. J. Jolly of Augusta, Ky., who arrived in Cincinnati Thursday morning with thirty-five of their teachers.

Frank Murden Moore, director of social centers in the Cincinnati schools, met the visitors at the Grand Central depot and acted as guide for them in their tours of the various schools, which will occupy two days. The Kentucky teachers will return home Friday night.
School Superintendent Condon, who happens to be out of the city, prepared the program for the visit to the various schools, so that the Kentuckians would have an opportunity to observe the latest and most advanced work in all departments, including gymnastics, science, languages, music and domestic science. Among the schools to be visited are Hughes, Woodward and Madisonville high schools, the Sixth, Guilford and Rothenberg schools for the first and second grade teachers; Avondale, Hyde Park and Westwood for the third and fourth grades; Avondale, Sands and Washburn for the fifth and sixth grades, and the Dyer, Madisonville and Peaslee schools for the seventh and eighth grade teachers.

"I am a Kentuckian, but at the age of 10 I attended school in Cincinnati for a year on Ninth near Main, under the able instruction of Miss McAvoy, and I have never forgotten Cincinnati and am glad to return to her school again 27 years later, still to learn," said Prof. Caplinger of Maysville.

"We have 1,100 children in the Maysville schools, and will, no doubt, find in the Cincinnati schools many useful ideas, not only in the teaching of the fundamental three R's, but in such fields as domestic science, social center work, gymnastics and other modern school development."

Director Moore has invited the teachers to a neighborhood meeting to be held in the Sands school Thursday evening.

LATEST WAR BULLETINS

English Land Batteries Beat Off Attacks and Sink Three Boats of Enemy.

London, December 10.—A dispatch from Dover states that three German submarines which took part in an attempted submarine raid up Admiralty harbor have been sunk after a heavy fusillade by the land batteries.

The attempted raid on the harbor was made under the cover of darkness at 6:30 this morning. Six submarines took part in it.

The first alarm on shore was given by the firing of big naval guns. Soon all the land batteries were in action.

The fusillade lasted for some time.
At least 200 shots were fired.

The message states that the submarines did not succeed in doing any damage.

Great Britain To Annex Egypt.

Paris, December 10.—From an authoritative source high in the councils of the foreign office it is learned that Great Britain is preparing to make announcement of the annexation of Egypt.

The formal annexation of Egypt has been long predicted despite numerous assurances by England that the soverignty of the country would be respected.

Egypt is nominally a part of the Turkish empire, but with a hereditary monarch, the Khedive. The affairs of the country, however, have long been administered by English officials, who occupy all the important positions in the government.

Two More German Cruisers Sunk.

London, December 10.—The German cruiser Nuremberg, which, with the light cruiser Dresden, escaped after the Scharnhorst, Gneisenau and Leipzig of Admiral Von Spee's squadron were sunk Tuesday morning by Vice Admiral Sturdee's British squadron off the Falkland islands, was sunk after a stern chase on the afternoon of the same day.

Germans Favor Peace Truce.

Germany replied immediately to the pep's suggestion of a Christmas truce.
The German reply is in the affirmative, under conditions, of course, that all the other belligerents agree.

ly 20 years.

Harry Rains and Dick Frayis rushed to her assistance and caught her and pulled her out.

She was taken to the home of a friend in Aberdeen and later rushed back to

A VERY GOOD SCHOOL JOKE.

Last Tuesday as we were in chapel and Mr. Caplinger was trying to impress upon the pupils that the future Governors and Presidents of the United States were now in the graded schools, he asked who we thought would be the future Presidents and Governors.
One little boy, 11 years of age, held up his hand and after shaking it vigorously, was called upon.

To which he promptly and importantly answered, "The women."
